

The person you recruit chooses a lot more than a new job. It's a matter of choosing an entirely new lifestyle.

Where's the best place to live in relation to the new workplace? Where do the children go to day school or other school? What leisure activities are there in Torsby, Hagfors or Karlstad? And, what is of most concern to the family, are there good jobs for the dependent?

This kind of help and information is supplied by Värmland's Relocation Service: help in choosing Värmland and help in striking roots in Värmland.

Värmland's Relocation Service is an obvious resource for the enterprises who need help when recruiting strategic personnel.

We offer qualified advice via a variety of services that is tailored and charged according to the individual being recruited.

Värmland's Relocation Service creates the right conditions for a good start of the day-to-day life in Värmland which in turn facilitates matters for all companies and organisations who deal with strategic recruitment.

"We didn't know anything about Karlstad before we met with the Relocation Service. From that day we felt that we had good knowledge of all important issues such as housing areas, labour market, outdoor life and the city service.

This helped us to finally decide to move here."
